FLOOR DEBATE

March 26, 2002 LB 1040

SENATOR CONNEALY: That's my understanding.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Now, if I were a county attorney in Lancaster or Douglas County and I thought I could make a few hundred extra bucks by just turning in a claim form, why wouldn't I?

SENATOR CONNEALY: You want me to answer that? (Laugh) I think that it's...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yeah.

SENATOR CONNEALY: ...a small part of what they do and it doesn't take a whole lot of time so they are not...they are not claiming it on their personal time. They are doing it under their county's time in the operations and I...I don't...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, last question on my time here.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Time.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Isn't this an enormously...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Time.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...expensive process to go through a miscellaneous claims process?

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Janssen.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Members, there is one, one on the tort claims that I am particularly interested about. That is number 01-773. It's Kathy Anstine, I believe is the way you pronounce that name. It was brought to my attention what had happened several months ago. It was prior to the first of the year. Kathy's sister lives in my district and she shops at...at my establishment and she was...brought this to my attention one day about...about her sister, and I said, well, what do you mean she...she saved the state some money? And then she went on to explain what the situation had been and she said they, within the department, they do have a...a fund that's set
